Irushka Thimira is an emerging talent currently playing for Chilaw Marians in Sri Lanka.

He is a serious talent who is at the start of what is envisaged to be a promising career. A crafty left arm finger spinner, Irushka has made a fine start to his professional career flowing his debut in 2022. Since then, he has already taken x2 five wicket hauls in his 12 first class games to date, with a best of 6/62 proving he can be a real match winner at the top level.

He is now featuring for Chilaw Marians across all formats and is starting to become an integral part of their attack under the captaincy of fellow CricX client, and top UK pro Dushan Vimukthi. He is used in a variety of roles and is often relied on to bowl the tough overs of the opposition innings. Irushka also has talent with bat in hand, while opportunities at first class level have been limited, he is keen to work on this aspect of his game whilst overseas, with a view to becoming a genuine all rounder in the professional arena.

We all know how well SLA professionals go in club cricket and we feel Irushka has all the tools to be a successful choice. He is an impressive young man with a great character and someone we recommend highly.
