Jack Cunnington (25) is an exciting top order batter who is an accomplished player at the famous St Kilda Cricket Club playing in Victorian Premier Cricket. Cunnington also has the added benefit of holding a British Passport.

Season 2020-21 kick started his career where he scored 350 runs @ an average of 50 for the 2nd XI where these performances granted 1st XI selection in that year. Season 2021-22 saw Jack play 18 out of 20 games in 1st XI where he played a vital role batting in the lower order where he scored over 160 runs @ 26.5 at a strike rate of over 100.

Due to Victorian State cricketers return Jack found himself out of the side but was able to play in the 2nd XI final which he was able to have premiership success.

Whatever team Jack plays in success seems to follow. Jack has played finals in 7 out of the 8 years at his time at St Kilda CC including 3 premiership.

Current season (23-24) Jack has scored 409 runs @68 including 2 hundreds and 2 fifties. One hundred was scored off 42 balls.

Jack is keen to continue his good start of the year with the bat and hopefully see premiership success. Jack has signed for Chislehurst & West Kent Cricket Club for their upcoming Kent Cricket League campaign.
