Jack Goodrich is a batting all-rounder based in London.

A passionate and enthusiastic cricketer, Jack represents Winchmore Hill Cricket Club in the Middlesex County Cricket League. He primarily opens the batting in the Third XI, while also making occasional appearances for the Second XI, and has earned one First XI appearance. Over the past two seasons, his development has been notable, and he is now striving to become a more consistent run-scorer and a regular member of the club's Second XI ahead of the 2026 season.

Driven by his commitment to improvement, the Englishman is seeking an opportunity to continue his development in the Southern Hemisphere during the 2026/27 season, embracing new conditions and challenges to further his growth as a player.

In addition to his playing ambitions, Jack is a qualified coach and is keen to mentor the next generation of cricketers at his chosen club, bringing the same energy, enthusiasm, and positivity that define his own approach to the game.

Self-motivated and self-financing, Jack would be a valuable addition to any club looking to recruit an enthusiastic cricketer who is eager to develop his game while fully immersing himself in an overseas club environment.
