Jack Luxton (19) is a hugely talented seam bowling all-rounder from Yorkshire, England.

Luxton is a front line right arm quick and fluent right handed middle order batsman who currently plays for the famous Bradford & Bingley Cricket Club in the Bradford Premier League. The youngster bowls with good pace and is widely regarded as one of the most exciting prospects in the county.

Having gone through the Yorkshire County Cricket Club age group system, 2022 was a real breakout year for the all-rounder. Not only did he take 34 1st XI wickets for his club side (and 342 runs) with a best of 7 for 42 against Batley Cricket Club, Luxton was a star performer for the Yorkshire CCC 18s side and a result made his debut for Yorkshire 2nd XI in the Roses clash against Lancashire 2nd XI.

Jack is currently in Melbourne playing for Dingley CC for their 2023/24 Cricket Southern Bayside campaign. To date he has over 400 runs averaging in the late twenties in the strong Cricket Southern Bayside comp, and has chipped in with some important wickets.

The Englishman is now ready to consider options to return for next season. A talented player and one we see going from strength to strength moving forward.
