Jack Needham is a hugely talented seam bowling all-rounder from Cheshire, England. Needham is a front-line, right-arm quick and hard-hitting, left-handed middle-order batter.

Needham played for his county, Cheshire, right up to under 19s level, and excelled with both bat and ball right through the system. Unfortunately, the youngster narrowly missed out on selection for the Lancashire Academy. Needham plays for his boyhood club Hawk Green Cricket Club in the Cheshire County Cricket League and has been one of the standard performers for the 1st XI side for several years.

Despite his youth, the all-rounder has racked up over 2,000 runs for the 1st team at an average of over 30 with the bat, and is approaching 150 wickets with the ball, at an average of under 17. The all-rounder is also an excellent fielder and qualified coach.

Needham is an exciting talent who is now set to embark on the journey of a lifetime having signed to play for Koonung Heights Cricket Club in Melbourne for their 2022/23 Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association campaign.
