Jack Newby is a UK-born South African batter who has dominated both English club cricket and South African domestic cricket for the best part of the last decade.

In South Africa, the powerful opener represented Western Province between 2015 and 2021, featuring in 29 matches across all three formats. He particularly excelled in first-class cricket, where in 17 matches he amassed 981 runs at 39.24, including three centuries and four fifties, with a highest score of 159*. Alongside his domestic commitments, he has also starred in Premier League cricket, where he has been a long-term captain of his current club.

Jack has been a standout performer in UK club cricket. Competing across the country since 2018 in some of the strongest Premier Leagues – including the East Anglia Premier (Norwich 2018, Frinton On Sea 2021), the Drakes Huddersfield League (Skelmanthorpe 2022-24), and the Airedale and Wharfedale Senior League (Horsford Hall Park 2025) – his batting record is exceptional. He has compiled 7,307 runs at 57.99, with 22 centuries and 38 fifties, striking 930 fours and 134 sixes.

His consistency at the top level is reflected in three seasons exceeding 1,500 runs:

- Norwich (2018): 1,611 runs at 76.71
- Skelmanthorpe (2022): 1,763 runs at 60.79
- Horsforth (2025): 1,502 runs at 68.27

While renowned for his batting prowess, Jack has also developed his leg-spin bowling, claiming 31 wickets at 32.13.

Alongside his club success, he has utilized his British passport to feature in County 2nd XI cricket for Kent, Derbyshire, and Warwickshire.

After four successful years in Yorkshire, Jack is now targeting a move back to the South, with ambitions to play in and around London for the 2026 season. He represents a high-profile signing and a proven match-winner for any UK club. A keen, and accredited coach, Jack is also a trader by trade who integrates very well socially, so as a package, he is a fantastic option ahead of the 2026 season.
