Jacob Holland is a promising left-arm seamer playing for Vernon Carus in the strong Northern ECB Premier League.

Vernon Carus, which was the host Club of Freddie Flintoff's latest BBC show, Field of Dreams, played their maiden stint in the Northern League this summer having earned promotion from the Palace Shield Premier Division the previous season.

The towering, 6'5" quick, Holland starred in the League bagging 36 wickets at 22.22 including best figures of 7-36 v Lancaster. The previous season he topped the Palace Shield bowling averages with 49 poles at 13. He has clearly made the step up to the big leagues, and also added 401 runs at 25.06 to evidence his ability from the lower order too.

Holland has enjoyed plenty of success through the years, starting by representing his district league representative sides through the age groups. He featured in the Northern Premier League's first-ever Hundred representative XI, and has now targeted pushing higher honours in future.

The Varnon Carus star is heading down under this winter to continue his development and is hoping his stint in New Zealand for St Albans (Christchurch Metro Cricket Association) will stand him in good stead for the future.
