Jade de Figueiredo is an exciting left-arm orthodox spinner with a proven record as one of South African domestic cricket's leading white-ball bowlers, and genuine senior international experience already under her belt having represented Portugal Women at T20I level in 2025.

Over more than a decade of professional cricket for KwaZulu-Natal (now KwaZulu-Natal Coastal) in the Hollywoodbets Pro50 and Pro20 series, de Figueiredo has taken 187 professional wickets: 112 at 16.69 in 83 List A matches, and 73 at 14.84 in 70 T20 appearances, with best figures of 5-10 and 4-14 respectively. She has been ranked among the top bowlers in the country in the T20 format over the last two seasons, finishing in the top 3 nationally for wickets and among the top 3 most economical bowlers in the format, and has been named her province's T20 Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons with the Hollywoodbets Dolphins Ladies.

De Figueiredo's talent was recognised early, representing KwaZulu-Natal Coastal at Under-19 level and South Africa's Emerging Players squad in both List A and T20 cricket. She made her full international debut for Portugal Women in April 2025, playing three T20Is against Norway in Albergaria and taking 2 wickets at an economy of 4.36, experience that gives her a genuine pathway into European cricket alongside her South African domestic pedigree.

Alongside her provincial commitments, de Figueiredo also plays club cricket for Chatsworth Sporting CC. A wily, experienced operator with the ball, she offers a rare package for any club: proven volume wicket-taking at the highest domestic level in South Africa, genuine international pedigree, and left-arm variety that is always in demand.
