Jaimie-Lee Strang is quite the prospect playing in Queensland Premier Cricket for Gold Coast Dolphins, following her switch from Ipswich Logan Hornets last summer.

Formerly a keeper, Strang is now a talented batter who bowls off-spin. She broke into Women's Grade cricket in 2018 and has now played over 100 senior matches. She is experienced beyond her age.

Strange played regional representative cricket up to the age of 15, often skipping sides to titles. She was vice-captain of the Hornets 2nd Grade side in 2019/20 before becoming a 1st Grade regular the following season. She has, in recent seasons, also represented the Queensland Country side.

Whilst known for her wicket-keeping skills, in recent years she's developed into a genuine all-rounder who is equally proficient in the field, with a big arm and good hands.

Coaching wise Strang has her Cricket Australia level 1 coaching certificate, and works for K78 Cricket Coaching and Consultancy as a private coach. She has significant coaching experience given her age.

The talented Australian headed to England in 2022 to become the first ever overseas player for Leigh Cricket Club. Playing in the Cheshire Women's Cricket League, Strange impressed hitting 535 runs at 26.75 before returning home to join the Dolphins for the 2022/23 season. She then ventured back to Europe last summer (2023) where she enjoyed similar success with Leinster club Balbriggan.

Strang is a serious talent who, having thoroughly enjoyed her past two seasons is now having a break from traveling in 2024.
