Jake Edwards is a skilful and dynamic bowling all-rounder renowned for his ability to make a decisive impact with both bat and ball. Standing at 6'4", he generates impressive pace and bounce, combining it with the rare skill of swinging the ball both ways. His consistency, control, and aggressive intent with the new ball make him a formidable presence with the ball in hand. Currently representing Thirsk CC in the Yorkshire Premier League North - Championship West, Jake has also represented Yorkshire CCC at age group level and also represents Northumbria University 1st XI.

As a lower-order batter, Jake is more than capable of shifting momentum with powerful hitting and intelligent strike rotation. Over the years, he has earned a reputation for gritty, game-changing innings under pressure. He helped his club to the North Yorkshire Division 1 title in 2017 and was awarded the North Yorkshire young bowler of the year in the same season. He also helped his University team to the Division 1 North title more recently.

Continuing to evolve, Jake Edwards is a valuable asset to any side, offering depth, balance, and the potential to influence the game in all departments. He has family links in the Perth area and is ideally seeking a club in this location for the coming season.
