James Barwick (23) is a talented off-spin bowling all-rounder from Hertfordshire, England.

Currently captaining Old Albanian Cricket Club in the Hertfordshire Premier Cricket League, James was appointed 1st XI Captain at just 20 years old, becoming the youngest captain in the club's history. Under his leadership, the club secured promotion in 2024.

A product of the Hertfordshire County Cricket pathway from U13-U18 level, where he captained in his later years, James also represented St Albans School 1st XI and was named Bowler of the Year in 2022. He has also gained valuable experience playing for Ealing CC through their U16-U21 sides.

James has developed into a highly effective all-round cricketer at senior level. In 2024, he took 21 wickets at 13.10 with an economy of just 3.26, alongside 274 runs at 27.40.

His form has continued in 2026, taking an impressive 28 wickets at just 13.21 with an economy rate of 3.51. With the bat, he has scored 440 runs at 33.85, including three half-centuries and a highest score of 79*.

Across his Old Albanian CC 1st XI career, James has taken 113 wickets at an average of 20.57 and scored 1,379 runs.

A tall off-spinner who generates turn and bounce, James possesses a range of variations including a well-disguised arm ball. With the bat, he is capable of rotating the strike and accelerating when required.

James is now seeking an overseas opportunity in Australia, where he is keen to contribute both on and off the field. An experienced young captain, he would also be keen to assist with junior coaching and club development.

A genuine all-rounder with proven leadership credentials and outstanding recent statistics, James Barwick would be an excellent overseas signing for any ambitious club.
