James Critchley is a talented batting all-rounder, from Lancashire, England.

James, who has a strong background in representative cricket and progressed through the Lancashire County Cricket pathway. At just 14 years old, he made his 1st XI debut playing for Leyland CC, in the ECB Northern Premier League. Last season (2024), he opened the batting and amassed over 600 runs.

Currently playing for Spring View in the Liverpool and District Competition, where he is opening the batting & bowling. At 6ft 4, James also offers an extra edge with the ball, bowling right-arm seam and using his height to generate awkward bounce, making him a difficult opponent, particularly on harder pitches.

With his focus now fully on developing his all-round game, James is eager to take his cricket to the next level and is targeting a winter in Australia to continue his growth and development in a competitive cricketing environment.

A friendly and versatile cricketer who offers quality with both bat and ball. His high standards in the field offers outstanding value in all three facets of the game. James is set to be a valuable asset to any club looking for a determined, motivated and genuine all-rounder.
