James Fitzgerald is an international all-rounder who represents Gibraltar (39 T20I caps), recognised for his ability to influence matches with both bat and ball in high-pressure situations.

A dependable and versatile performer, he has played an important role in Gibraltar's success in international competition through his consistency, determination, and strong work ethic.

Known for his commitment to team culture and collective success, James values leadership, professionalism, and supporting those around him. His passion for continuous improvement and dedication to excellence make him a valuable asset both on and off the field.

Alongside his playing career, James works as a Strength and Conditioning Coach and has accumulated more than four years of experience within professional cricket environments in the UK, including roles with Nottinghamshire, Warwickshire, and Derbyshire County Cricket Clubs. He is also currently working towards his ECB Level 2 coaching qualification.

James's ambition is to continue developing as an all-rounder and to compete at the highest level possible in both domestic and international cricket. He aims to contribute consistently to team success, further enhance his skills across all facets of the game, and embrace leadership opportunities as they arise. He remains committed to working hard, performing consistently, and challenging himself in increasingly competitive environments to maximise his potential and achieve sustained success in the game.
