James Logan is a spin bowling all-rounder originally from Yorkshire, England.

Logan who has recently been released by Kent County Cricket Club is a front line left arm finger spinner and talented left handed middle order batter. The left-arm spinner Logan played two matches for his native county, Yorkshire, between 2018 and 2020 before being released amid limited opportunities with the first team.

He joined Kent on a two-month contract in June 2021 after impressing in trials for the club's Second XI and took 1 for 14 from three overs against Hampshire in his Vitality Blast debut. Logan claimed three wickets in his maiden first-class appearance for Kent, at Lancashire, before making his List A debut in the 2021 Royal London Cup and earning a permanent contract to the end of the 2023 season, playing for the Second XI through 2022.

James spent the 2024 club season playing for Broxbourne in the Hertfordshire League (542 runs at 36.13) and is assessing his options ahead of the 2025 season.
