James Wade (22) is a talented seam bowling all-rounder from Yorkshire, England.

Wade, a frontline quick with good pace, is also a capable right-handed middle-order batter. The Englishman has recently signed for Acomb Cricket Club in the Yorkshire Premier League, following three successful seasons with Ossett Cricket Club in the competitive Bradford League, where he picked up nearly 100 wickets while contributing crucial runs with the bat.

During his time at Leeds Beckett University, Wade was a key member of the 1st XI throughout his studies. He has also represented Wiltshire County Cricket Club at the 2nd XI level, further showcasing his talent at a high standard. Alongside his playing career, James is a keen and qualified coach, eager to pass on his knowledge and mentor the next generation.

Beyond his on-field skills, Wade brings valuable experience in groundskeeping. Having worked as a Head Groundsman for over three years, he has also assisted at Hampshire County Cricket Club and is keen to continue his expertise in this area while playing overseas.

Now looking to take his game to the Southern Hemisphere at the end of the UK 2025 season, Wade is an exciting prospect and a fantastic all-round addition to any club.
