Javelle Glen is a Jamaican professional cricketer who has established himself as a player to watch in West Indies domestic cricket.

A left handed middle order batsman and right arm leg break bowler, Glen is recognised for his aggressive stroke play, versatility and ability to make valuable contributions with both bat and ball.

Glen made his Twenty20 debut on 13 September 2019, representing the Jamaica Tallawahs in the Caribbean Premier League (CPL). He subsequently represented St Lucia in 2020, gaining further experience in competitive franchise cricket.

He currently represents the Jamaica Scorpions in West Indies domestic cricket, where his performances have continued to demonstrate his growing potential and importance to the side.

A significant milestone in Glen's career came in 2024 when he scored his maiden List A century, an unbeaten 114 off 96 balls against the Leeward Islands Hurricanes in a massive semi final win against an attack featuring Oshane Thomas, Rahkeem Cornwall and Hayden Walsh. He followed this achievement in 2025 by recording his maiden First Class century, scoring an impressive unbeaten 140 against the Trinidad and Tobago Red Force.

With a First Class batting average of 38.87 and a highest score of 140 not out, Glen has demonstrated consistency, resilience and the ability to produce substantial innings at the domestic level.

Combining attacking batting with leg spin bowling, Glen offers valuable balance and flexibility to any side. His continued development and performances for the Jamaica Scorpions underline his growing stature within Jamaican cricket and his ambition to establish himself among the leading talents in the Caribbean.

He would be a high quality recruit for any club seeking an entertaining run churner with the ability to contribute nicely with his leg spin.
