Jay Gohil is an exciting top-order batter from Saurashtra, India.

He has played 56 matches in Indian domestic cricket, widely regarded as one of the strongest domestic standards in the world. Gohil made a remarkable start to his First-Class career by scoring a double century on debut, becoming Saurashtra's first batter and the 13th Indian batter to achieve this feat.

In the Ranji Trophy, he currently averages a very healthy 44.80 and has scored 2 centuries and 2 fifties, while in the Vijay Hazare Trophy he has added 1 century and 2 fifties.

Known for his explosive white-ball batting, he holds the record for Saurashtra's fastest T20 fifty, smashing 53 off just 17 balls. He was part of the Ranji Trophy and Vijay Hazare Trophy-winning Saurashtra teams in the 2021-22 season, highlighting his impact in championship campaigns.

Jay is a player with serious pedigree and with his star on the rise domestically, he is keen to head to the UK for his debut season this coming summer. For any club seeking a high quality run scorer and all round good human being, Jay would be an excellent choice. A classy player, as evidenced in his video footage, he is certainly one to look out for in 2026.
