Jehu Anderson is a hugely talented prospect playing for Mizoram, alongside the likes of CricX stars KC Cariappa, Mohit Jangra, and Agni Chopra, across all formats of Indian domestic cricket.

A exciting wicket-keeper batter, last summer (2023/24), Anderson was the only Mizoram player to feature in the Deodhar Trophy (for Northeast Zone), evidencing his potential for higher honours.

His selection was based on his success in the BCCI run Col CK Nayudu Trophy for Northeast Zone, where he was awarded the 'best keeper'. He also topped his sides run charts in the Mizoram Cricket League, where he was subsequently awarded the 'batter of the tournament'.

His highlight a first-class level to date was clearly is maiden century, scored during the 2022/23 season against Plate Group champions Bihar. It's envisaged this will be the first of many domestic centuries.

The talented gloveman is now set to showcase his talent abroad having signed with Wellingborough Town for their 2025 Northamptonshire League season.
