Jermaine Levy is an exciting quick playing in West Indies domestic cricket.

Pigeonholed as a white-ball specialist, the pacemen has only played 4 first-class matches but has excelled in the Regional Super50 over the past 4 years.

Season tallies of 13 wickets at 21.92 (2016/17), 8 at 21.50 (2017/18), 10 at 13.30 (2018/19), and 6 at 37.66 (2019/20) see Levy boast an impressive List A average of 22.34 for his 41 wickets to date.

A genuine quick, Levy has represented Jamaica, the Combined Campuses and Colleges, the University of the West Indies, and most recently, the West Indies Emerging Players. His exploits have helped his sides to back-to-back Super50 titles (2018/19, and 2019/20). He boasts best figures of 4-22, and several Man of the Match awards in List A cricket.

The talented Jamaican quick is now eager to showcase his skills abroad. A high-quality quick, who is a very capable lower-order batter, Levy is set to head down under and play for Bentleigh for their 2022/23 Cricket Southern Bayside campaign.
