Jessica McFadyen is a dynamic wicketkeeper-batter known for her aggressive style behind the stumps and relentless work ethic. Fiercely competitive, she thrives on standing up to the stumps whenever possible, turning half-chances into dismissals and consistently pressuring opposition batters.

With the bat, Jessica brings versatility and intent—whether opening in 50-over matches or floating through the T20 order, she excels at shifting momentum and accelerating the run rate. Off the field, she's a natural leader and supportive teammate, always sharing her experience and insight.

A proud member of the New Zealand side that claimed bronze at the 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games, McFadyen has also enjoyed domestic success with Wellington, securing titles in both the Hallyburton Johnstone Shield and the Super Smash. Her domestic record speaks volumes, with over 2,000 List A runs at an average of 35.54, including three centuries and a career-best 153*.

Before fully committing to cricket, Jessica was also a talented hockey player, earning a scholarship to Wake Forest University in the U.S. Now firmly established in the cricketing world and a two-time New Zealand-contracted player, she's looking ahead to 2026 with ambitions of an overseas playing experience to further her journey.
