At club level, Jodie plays in the Women's Premier Division of the West of England Premier League (WEPL) for Royal Wootton Bassett Cricket Club, while also regularly competing in the Men's 3rd XI, a testament to her skill, adaptability, and passion for the game.

In the 2024 season, Jodie averaged in the early 20s for the Women's 1st XI, registering two half-centuries, and averaged just under 20 in the Men's 3rd XI, with a top score of 69. She also chipped in with the ball across formats, claiming 10 wickets when not wearing the gloves.

She further represents Cardiff Metropolitan University, where she recently impressed on their tour of Sri Lanka, retiring with a well-made half-century, showcasing her ability to perform on international tours and in varied conditions.

Jodie holds a BSc in Sports Coaching and is a qualified ECB coach, deeply passionate about mentoring young players and contributing to the growth of the women's game. She is eager to become actively involved in both the junior and women's sections of her new club, making her a well-rounded addition both on and off the field.
