Joe Boland, an exciting young bowling all-rounder from Liverpool, England.

Ahead of the 2025 season, Boland made the move to Liverpool Cricket Club, competing in Division One of the Liverpool and District Cricket Competition. He enjoyed an outstanding debut campaign, claiming 22 wickets at an exceptional average of 9.23, including best figures of 7/21. His impact with the ball played a pivotal role in Liverpool's title-winning season, earning the club promotion to the Premier League for the first time in its history ahead of the 2026 campaign.

The Liverpool and District Premier League is widely regarded as the strongest ECB Premier League in the country, and Joe will be looking to carry his impressive form forward as he continues to test himself against elite opposition.

Now keen to broaden his horizons and experience cricket overseas, Boland would be a valuable addition for any club seeking a bowler with proven ECB Premier League pedigree to strengthen their attack for the 2026/27 season.

An enthusiastic and committed coach, Joe is also eager to play an active role within his chosen club's coaching structure, contributing both on and off the field in his new environment.
