Over the past three seasons, his success at club level has generated representative honours, playing Minor County Cricket for Bedfordshire County Cricket Club in all 3 formats of the NCCA. But its the last 2 winters that the impressive all-rounder has really excelled, playing for the famous St Albans Cricket Club in Christchurch Premier Cricket, in New Zealand. In his 1st year he took an amazing 48 wickets at 18 with 4 five wicket hauls, and last winter followed that up with a further 23 wickets (Whilst captaining the side).

The Englishman has recently secured a return to Australia ahead of the 2024/25 season. Joe has agreed to take up a 'Head Of Female Cricket' role at Subiaco Floreat in Western Australia.
