Joe Thompson is a talented wicketkeeper-batter from Yorkshire, England.

Thompson plays for the famous Yorkshire County Cricket Club and is currently part of their Academy, while also gaining valuable experience with the Yorkshire 2nd XI. He has established himself within the county pathway and has featured regularly against strong second-team opposition, with recent scores including 105, 85* and 86*.

At Academy level, the impressive keeper-batter has continued to develop and score heavily, with a season-high of 122. His performances have highlighted his ability to build an innings as well as accelerate when required, while his wicketkeeping adds further value to his game.

At club level Thompson represents Clifton Alliance CC in the strong ECB Yorkshire Premier League North. He was an integral part of their title-winning side, scoring 633 runs at an average of 38, and has continued to gain extensive first-team experience against quality senior cricket.

Still a young player with plenty of development ahead of him, Thompson offers clubs the combination of a talented wicketkeeper, proven run-scorer and player with experience within a professional county pathway.

The Englishman is now keen to spend a winter in Australia and is available as an overseas recruit. With his Yorkshire pedigree, recent 2nd XI performances and experience in strong club cricket, Thompson would be an excellent addition for any ambitious club looking for a quality young keeper-batter.
