Joe Waterhouse is a young spin-bowling all-rounder from Blackpool, United Kingdom.

At club level, Joe plays for his home club, Blackpool Cricket Club, a well-established powerhouse within the Northern Premier League and one of the most recognised clubs in Lancashire cricket. Over the past five seasons, he has been a regular member of the club's Second XI, steadily developing his craft as a spinner. During that time, the 22-year-old has claimed 116 wickets at an impressive average of 19.02, an excellent return for a young bowler honing his skills.

Joe has also gained opportunities in the First XI, particularly in the club's T20 competition, where he has continued his knack for taking wickets, claiming 25 wickets at an average of 19.12.

Heading into the 2026 season, the Englishman is eager to continue building on his progress, aiming for another strong year in club colours while pushing for further First XI opportunities.

Looking ahead, Joe is keen to take the next step in his development by experiencing cricket Down Under, gaining valuable exposure to overseas conditions and broadening his cricketing horizons.

A true clubman, Joe is actively involved in junior coaching at Blackpool Cricket Club and is passionate about supporting young players. He is keen to continue contributing in this area with his host club, mentoring and inspiring the next generation of cricketers.

With his wicket-taking ability, team-first attitude, and coaching involvement, Joe would be a valuable addition for any club seeking a bowling all-rounder capable of making a positive impact both on and off the field for the 2026/27 season.
