Johnny Browne is a talented top order batsman from Liverpool, England.

The youngster is a fluent left hander who is capable of batting anywhere in the top/middle order. Browne plays his cricket for powerhouses Northern Cricket Club who were ECB National T20 champions in 2025.

To date the lefty has played 79 times for the 1st team with a high score of 63 not out, but in recent times due to the strength of the 1st XI and his University commitments has played the majority of his cricket for the 2nd team. Last year Browne was a key member of the league winning side with over 500 runs at 34.

The batter as a 16 year old was a key part of the Northern 1st XI side that won the strong Liverpool Comp, and hit the winning runs in the game against New Brighton that secured the league title.

The Englishman is now finishing his studies and keen to play in Melbourne. A talented lad who will fit into any club.
