Josh Forknall is a versatile medium-pace bowling all-rounder who brings value both on and off the field.

Currently representing Loughborough Town 1st XI in the Leicestershire ECB Premier League, Josh is capable of taking the new ball or delivering disciplined spells through the middle overs.

During a previous injury setback, Josh dedicated significant time to developing his batting, an investment that paid off with a century in Division One. Having fully recovered, he is now fit, playing regular first-team cricket, and continuing to contribute with both bat and ball.

Josh represented Leicestershire CCC from the ages of 9 to 17, highlighting the quality and potential that has been evident throughout his cricketing journey.

A committed clubman with a well-rounded skill set, he combines competitiveness, reliability, and a strong team-first mentality. Ready for the next challenge, Josh is eager to take his game down under and make a positive impact both on and off the field.
