Josh Nott is an immensely talented young seamer from Devon in the UK.

A product of the Devon CCC county pathway system, Josh has lofty ambitions of playing cricket at the top level. A skilful left arm seamer, Josh has excellent control along with the ability to move the ball late. He has showcased these skills throughout his junior career as he has progressed through his home counties system (helping Devon CCC to the National Counties T20 Under 18s Championship) and has now started to transfer this in to his senior cricket. Playing in the ECB Devon Premier League for Exeter CC, he has began to find his feet and been given lots of opportunities at this strong level of cricket, taking the new ball against current and ex first class professionals is helping to fast track his game rapidly.

As is the case with modern day cricketers, Josh takes great pride in his fielding and is always looking to develop every aspect of his game. He practices hard with a desire to be the very best cricketer he can be. He is also keen to develop his batting as much as possible with a view to becoming a genuine all rounder in the future. Josh is also a committed club man who gives 100 per cent to all aspects of club life.

A bright talent with a big future, Josh would be an excellent pick for any club seeking a left arm seamer who would be a pleasure to host this season.
