Josh Udy is a talented young all-rounder from Worcestershire, United Kingdom.

A product of the Worcestershire County Cricket Club pathway system, Josh has progressed through the ranks with standout performances, particularly with the ball. His development at county age-group level has equipped him with strong technical skills and game awareness, alongside the ability to perform under pressure.

Josh attends Malvern College, where he is a key member of the First XI competing in the National Schools Championship. He played an important role in helping the side reach the National Semi-Finals last season.

At club level, when school commitments allow, Josh represents Worcester Cricket Club in the Worcestershire County League. He enjoyed an outstanding campaign with the bat, scoring over 400 runs in just 8 innings at an average of 60, including two centuries and two half-centuries, highlighting his quality as a top-order batter.

An injury has limited his bowling over the past two years; however, he is set to return to full bowling fitness ahead of the 2026 season. This period has allowed him to further develop his batting, evolving into a more complete and balanced all-rounder.

Now priding himself on his ability to influence the rhythm of a game with both bat and ball, Josh is targeting a strong 12 months ahead. He is eager to continue his development and test himself in overseas conditions, with plans to spend the 2026/27 season in Australia.

Off the field, Josh holds an ECB Core Coach (Level Two) qualification and is keen to immerse himself within a club's coaching structure, mentoring and supporting the next generation of cricketers.

A dynamic and developing all-rounder with significant upside, Josh Udy would be a valuable addition for any club seeking a player capable of impacting games in multiple ways for the upcoming season.
