Joshua McIntyre is an accomplished First Grade wicketkeeper and middle-order right-handed batter, recognized for his impressive skills and leadership on the cricket field. He has represented the ACT at 17s and 19s level in recent times. The Aussie is also eligible for a UK Ancestry Visa.

A natural leader, Joshua served as captain of the cricket program and First XI at Radford College, where he played a pivotal role in promoting participation and fostering a love for cricket throughout the school's program. His leadership qualities have not only inspired his teammates but also enhanced the overall cricketing culture at his school.

In the 2023-24 season, Joshua demonstrated exceptional performance, averaging over 60 runs in his finals appearances while excelling as a wicketkeeper across all formats of the game, including One Day, Two Day, and T20 competitions. His ability to perform under pressure has made him a valuable asset to his team.

Outside of cricket, Joshua maintains his athleticism by participating in rugby and AFL during the off-season. These sports complement his cricketing skills, particularly enhancing his agility and reflexes behind the stumps.

With a strong foundation in both leadership and athletic performance, Joshua McIntyre is looking forward to making a contribution to an English cricket side in the 2025 summer season.
