Karanjot Singh (22), an extremely talented batting all-rounder from Kent, England.

Currently representing Blackheath Cricket Club in the Kent Premier League, Singh has established himself as a key figure in the Club's First XI, producing consistent performances at the top of the order.

He brings with him valuable overseas experience, having previously attended the Darren Lehmann Cricket Academy in Adelaide and represented Kensington Districts in the South Australian Premier League, where he impressed with the bat, averaging 40 across the season.

His success has also seen him trial with Essex County Cricket Club, where he featured in several 2nd XI fixtures, further showcasing his potential at a higher level. In addition, Singh has had the honour of captaining the National Asian Cricket Council (NACC) side against various NCCA Counties.

Now eager to return to Australia, Singh is looking to build on his previous experience, continue his development, and push towards his ambition of playing the game professionally.

No doubt a great last-minute pick-up for any side looking to strengthen their batting line-up for the 2025/26 season.
