Karanveer Kooner is a left-handed top-order batsman, right-arm off-spinner and part-time wicketkeeper from England, with experience playing competitive senior cricket at a strong level.

Karanveer currently plays 1st XI cricket for Lymington Cricket Club in the Southern Premier League and has also been involved in the Hampshire County pathway, including the Hampshire Hawks Academy.

As a player, Karanveer prides himself on being versatile and contributing in multiple areas of the game. His strengths include power hitting, playing under pressure, death bowling, powerplay bowling and athletic fielding. He is a competitive cricketer who enjoys taking responsibility in important moments and doing whatever is required to help his team win.

One of Karanveer's biggest achievements to date was scoring an unbeaten 129* in a final while chasing 220. He played a match-winning innings and helped guide his team to victory through a last-wicket partnership. The experience demonstrated his ability to perform under pressure and remain composed in high-stakes situations.

Karanveer has also continued to develop his off-spin and has worked hard on his variations. He is comfortable contributing with the ball when required and enjoys having an impact in different phases of the game.

Karanveer is now looking to take the next step in his cricket career by gaining overseas experience, playing in a new environment and learning from different players and coaches. He is ambitious, hardworking and eager to challenge himself against new opposition while continuing to develop as a cricketer.

His long-term goal is to establish himself at the highest level possible. Karanveer believes an overseas opportunity would provide valuable experience both on and off the field, allowing him to grow as a player while making a positive contribution to the club.
