Kashif Ali is an outstanding prospect playing for Northern province in Pakistan.

The teenager burst onto the domestic scene last summer helping his side reach the Quaid-e-Azam Trophy final.

Unfortunately, his side went down to Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, not before he'd taken 3 wickets en-route to a season tally of 24 poles at 21.87 throughout the 2021/22 campaign.

The right-arm express finished second to Mubasir Khan on Northern's wicket-charts, and he was 11th overall.

A former Pakistan Under-16 star, Ali has already enjoyed a significant rise in the domestic game and is now eager to push for full international honours.

For now, though, he'll bide his time and is keen to secure a stint abroad for the 2023 season.
