Katlego Sethlodi is a rising fast-bowling talent who has been making waves with the North West Dragons since her CSA Women's debut in February 2021. A right-arm seamer with natural rhythm and accuracy, she has already claimed 23 wickets at an impressive average of 14.56 in 31 List A matches, building on the promise she showed during a stellar junior career.

Progressing through the Dragons' age-group system, Sethlodi captained the U19s and earned SA Schools honours, while also being named in the South Africa U19 Girls squad. Though she narrowly missed out on a playing spot, her potential was clear for all to see. Now determined to elevate her game further, she is targeting opportunities abroad to sharpen her skills and gain invaluable international experience.
