Kayleen is a dynamic batting all-rounder who has been a mainstay of the Namibian National Women's Team since making her debut in 2018, amassing 105 international appearances to date. Equally capable with bat and ball, she has built a reputation as a match-winner and a leader, while constantly seeking opportunities to develop her game and inspire the next generation.

Her impact on the Namibian game has been recognised through a string of accolades, including Player of the Tournament honours at the 2017 Cricket Namibia Women's T20 Tournament, the 2020 National Women's League, and the 2022 Wanderers Ladies T10 League. She has twice been named Female Player of the Year at the Namibia Cricket National Awards (2019 and 2021), underlining her consistency and influence over several seasons.

In WT20Is, Kayleen has scored 1,278 runs at a strike rate of 82.93, with three fifties and a highest score of 86*, while also proving a key weapon with the ball. Her off-spin has yielded 83 wickets at an impressive average of 15.48 and economy rate of 4.49, with best figures of 3 for 8. She has also contributed in the field with 23 catches and 3 stumpings, highlighting her all-round value to the team.

Now eager to broaden her horizons, Kayleen is targeting opportunities in the UK and on the global franchise circuit, aiming to showcase her skills on new stages while continuing to grow as both a player and a role model for women's cricket.
