Kayley Knight is a dynamic young pace bowler making her mark for Northern Districts in New Zealand. Since her first-class debut in November 2020, she has become known for her aggressive bowling and knack for taking crucial wickets, amassing 34 wickets in 30 List A matches at an impressive average of 23.24.

Her standout performance came during the 2023/24 HBJ season when she claimed 7/35, setting a Northern Districts record and ranking among the best bowling figures in New Zealand domestic women's cricket. That season also saw her honored as Northern Districts' HBJ Player of the Year, reflecting her growing influence in the team.

Kayley's cricket journey began at just 13, progressing through Northern Districts' age-group system and representing New Zealand on the U19 World Cup stage in 2023. She has also toured India with the NZ Development team, gaining valuable international experience. Known for blending pace with well-directed bouncers, she continues to refine her bowling while seeking opportunities to play in the UK in 2026 after the New Zealand season.

Beyond her own game, Kayley is deeply committed to nurturing the next generation, coaching in schools, mentoring regional teams, and assisting local clubs in Gisborne. With her skill, dedication, and ambition, Kayley Knight is a rising star poised to make a lasting impact on New Zealand women's cricket.

Note: Kayley's eligibility window for UK club cricket (based on 5 U19 Cricket World Cup matches in the last 36 months) remains open until 15 Jan 2026.
