Keerthy James is a highly accomplished Indian bowling all-rounder with over a decade of domestic cricket experience. Since making her T20 debut in December 2011, she has played over 100 domestic matches across List A and T20 formats. A consistent and incisive bowler, James has claimed more than 130 wickets at an impressive average in the mid-teens. With the bat, she has contributed numerous match-winning innings across various positions in the order.

Her standout performances have earned her selection in the Challenger Trophy, representing India C and D, and she has been a key performer for Kerala. James has played a pivotal role in guiding her state to the WPL finals and Senior T20 semi-finals, in addition to previously securing the U23 All India T20 title.

Seeking to expand her career overseas, James is looking for opportunities in the UK during the 2026 season. A proven match-winner, she comes highly recommended for any club in search of a high-caliber women's overseas player.

Note: James' eligibility window for UK club cricket (based on 5 FC matches in the last 36 months) remains open until 16 Oct 2025.
