Kenzie Hall is a 22-year-old Irish opening batter and right-arm off-spinner currently representing Bready Cricket Club in Premiership 1.

A talented top-order batter with the ability to contribute valuable overs, Kenzie has built a reputation as one of the North West's most promising young cricketers.

He made his senior debut for Killyclooney Cricket Club at just 14 years of age, quickly establishing himself as a key performer across both the Premiership and Championship. During his time at the club, he became Killyclooney's youngest-ever first-team captain and set the record for the most Premier League wickets in the club's history. His consistent performances also earned him multiple Player of the Year, Batter of the Year, and Bowler of the Year awards.

At representative level, Kenzie progressed through both Ireland and North West age-group pathways from Under-11 to Under-19. He captained the North West in several interprovincial tournaments and was selected for the Emerging Warriors programme, reflecting his leadership qualities and continued development.

Following an outstanding 2025 campaign in which he scored 598 runs at an average of 33.22, including two centuries and two half-centuries, while also taking 20 wickets, Kenzie has continued that form into 2026. With half the season remaining, he has already accumulated 360 runs at an average of 30, including a career-best 141 and two further half-centuries, alongside five wickets, demonstrating his value as a genuine all-round contributor.
