Keshan Wanniarachchi is an exciting top-order left-handed batter known for his versatility, able to keep wicket or bowl off-spin, representing Negombo Cricket Club in Sri Lankan domestic cricket. Since making his first-class and List A debuts in March 2019, Keshan has steadily established himself as a reliable and accomplished batter, having played over 50 matches across formats.

With more than 1,000 runs to his name and five half-centuries, his consistent performances for Negombo earned him a spot representing Colombo in the recent National Super League (September 2024). Batting at number three, Keshan shared the dressing room with a strong lineup featuring Sri Lankan internationals such as Dasun Shanaka, Charith Asalanka, Avishka Fernando, Pramod Madushan, and Shevon Daniel, gaining valuable experience alongside top-tier talent.

Keshan has also broadened his cricketing horizons by playing in various tournaments in Oman throughout the 2023/24 season, including D10, D20, and D50 competitions, further developing his game in diverse conditions. Now, he is eager to take the next step by embarking on a UK club cricket stint next summer. Highly recommended by his Negombo teammates, Keshan is a promising player who is sure to make a positive impact wherever he goes.
