The all-rounder is comfortable batting anywhere in the top order and bowls some front-line off-spin. He comes highly recommended by ex-England International Robin Smith.

The youngster currently plays for WACA powerhouses Mount Lawley Cricket Club, and due to his strong performances in the 2nd Grade side over the past two seasons (including a hundred), has forced his way into the 1st Grade side.

Abrams then decided to play in the strong Darwin Comp in the WA off-season (given his inability to travel to the UK owing to COVID), the youngster excelled with bat and ball for Palmerston Cricket Club.

The talented all-rounder, who boasts a British Passport, is eager to progress in the game and has spent two productive seasons for Thongsbridge in the Drakes Huddersfield League (2022-23).

Whilst unavailable for 2024, he is open to options in subsequent seasons.
