Kiran Kullar is an accomplished wicket-keeper and top-order batsman with over eight years of First Team experience in the highly competitive Essex Premier League and Division 1. Known for his adaptability, Kullar is comfortable batting in various positions and is particularly effective as an opening batsman. His extensive experience spans all formats, including three-day matches, 50-over games, and T20s.

Throughout his career, Kullar has had the opportunity to play alongside and against a host of high-calibre professionals, including Beau Webster, Jon-Jon Smuts, Sam Cook, Adam Wheater, and Jamie Porter. These experiences have further sharpened his skills and deepened his understanding of the game at a high level.

Kullar's cricketing journey began with Essex County Cricket Club, where he represented age-group sides from junior levels through to Under-18s. He was a part of the Essex CCC Academy and has featured in Second XI matches, demonstrating his potential and consistency in stepping up to elite performance environments.

He holds the distinction of being both the youngest-ever First XI player and First Team captain for Upminster Cricket Club. In addition, he has captained several Essex County age-group sides, showcasing his leadership abilities and cricketing intelligence from a young age.

Kiran Kullar brings a wealth of experience, a strong work ethic, and a high-performance mindset to any team he represents. He now seeks a season down under and represents a fine option for any club seeking a strong wicket keeper/batter.
