Kobe Williams (19) is a dynamic Off-Spinner from Bridgetown, Barbados.

Williams, known for his craft as an off-spinner and his contributions as a dependable lower-order batsman. His passion for cricket was evident from an early age, making an impact at the schoolboy level by emerging as the leading wicket-taker in school competitions.

A significant turning point in Kobe's journey came when he trained at the Sir Everton Weekes Centre of Excellence, where he had access to elite coaching and further honed his skills. Representing Barbados at the U15 and U17 levels not only sharpened his abilities but also prepared him for the challenges of higher-level competition.

At just 19, Kobe now plays for the historic Empire Cricket Club, rubbing shoulders with seasoned test and first-class cricketers. His experiences at Empire have bolstered his growth and reinforced his commitment to reaching the highest levels of the game.

Kobe is now seeking an overseas opportunity, where he aims to further develop his craft, gain invaluable experience, and enhance his chances of breaking into the senior ranks of Barbados and West Indian cricket.

A determined and disciplined cricketer, Kobe is ready to bring his skills, enthusiasm, and potential to any club looking for a talented and driven young spinner.
