Krishan Arawwawala (21), a promising left-arm spinner from London, England.

The left-arm spinner is eager to challenge himself on the field and embrace the unique experiences of cricket down under. A dedicated cricketer with a strong academic background, Krishan recently completed his studies at the University of Nottingham, where he represented the 1st XI for the past three seasons.

Having attended University of Nottingham and prioritised his studies. Krishan represented the Universities 1st XI over the past 3 years.

At the club level, Krishan is honing his craft with Wanstead & Snaresbrook Cricket Club, one of the premier teams in the Essex Premier League. Despite limited game time during his university years, the young spinner has been refining his skills in the 2nd XI.

As a member of the prestigious Marylebone Cricket Club (MCC), Krishan embodies the spirit of cricket both on and off the field. Now, with his studies complete, he is ready to dedicate himself fully to a complete cricket season, seeking the opportunity to grow his game and contribute meaningfully to a club overseas.

With his enthusiasm, work ethic, and self-funding status, Krishan Arawwawala would be a valuable addition to any club seeking a talented left-arm spinner who is committed to integrating into club life and giving 100% both on and off the pitch.
