Lahiru Dawatage is a talented wicketkeeper-batter currently representing Badureliya Sports Club in Sri Lanka's domestic circuit.

A product of the renowned St Peter's College, Colombo—alma mater of Sri Lankan internationals Russell Arnold and Kaushal Lokuarachchi—Dawatage has long been regarded as a player with significant potential.

He represented Sri Lanka U19 in both ODI and red-ball formats, including a tour of England in August 2022. Earlier that year, he made his List A debut for Ragama Cricket Club, before going on to make his First-Class debut shortly after. Lahiru also gained franchise experience in the Pakistan Junior League, representing the Hyderabad Hunters.

After a year away from the First-Class scene, Dawatage returned to Sri Lanka's domestic structure with Panadura Sports Club, featuring throughout the 2024/25 campaign. He has since moved to Badureliya Sports Club for the current First-Class season, where he has slotted into the top order and continues to develop his game.

Still early in his professional journey, Lahiru has demonstrated promise across formats with both bat and gloves. He is now seeking a UK club opportunity for the 2027 season, aiming to further refine his skills and gain valuable experience in overseas conditions.
