Lahiru Dawatage is an exciting wicket-keeper batter playing for Ragama Cricket Club in Sri Lankan domestic cricket.

A graduate of the prestigious St Peter’s College, Colombo, whose cricketing alumni can include the likes of Russell Arnold, Kaushal Lokuarachchi, and Angelo Perera, Dawatage is a player with a serious future in the game.

The youngster represented Sri Lanka U19s in 2 ODI’s and 2 Tests, the latter during their tour to England in August 2022. A few months earlier he’d made his white ball debut’s for Ragama, then his first-class debut on his return in September.

He has made a great fist of things during the infancy of his professional career, averaging in the high 20s across first-class, and List A cricket. Dawatage was also involved with the Pakistan Junior League for Hyderabad Hunters.

As mentioned, he’s a player with a future, and he is eager to spend a season in England next summer to continue his development.
