Liam Clorley, a young and promising, batting all-rounder from Cheshire, England.

A product of the Cheshire County Cricket Club pathway, Clorley has been a standout performer at age-group level, playing a key role for the county's U18 side throughout the 2025 season. The top-order batter scored over 500 runs at an average in the mid-30s, headlined by an excellent 104 against Worcestershire CCC, while also claiming 12 wickets with his off-spin, highlighting his genuine all-round ability.

Across all competitions in 2025, Liam passed 1,400 runs for the calendar year, a milestone that underlines both consistency and a high ceiling for future development. At club level, he plays for Cheshire League powerhouse Toft Cricket Club, where he has already held a place in the First XI for the past two seasons, an impressive achievement for a player competing in senior Premier League cricket from just 16 years old.

Now seeking his first overseas opportunity for the 2026/27 season, Liam is eager to continue his development in new conditions and environments, pushing toward sustained First XI impact as his game continues to mature.

Alongside his playing credentials, Clorley holds his ECB Core Coach (Level Two) qualification and is passionate about contributing within a club's coaching structure, helping mentor young cricketers and giving back to the next generation wherever possible.

A driven, committed, and coachable talent, Liam is expected to generate strong interest abroad and would be a valuable addition for any club seeking a young all-rounder ready to fully immerse himself both on and off the field.
