Elizabeth Cohr is an exciting young cricketer who has made an immediate impact since debuting for the Central Districts Hinds in both the 50-over and T20 formats. She began her domestic career in impressive fashion, claiming a four-wicket haul on 50-over debut and following it up with two more in her next three matches. With three four-wicket hauls from just four games, she currently sits equal top of the wicket-taking charts alongside Jess Kerr and Xara Jetly, and has gone on to take 14 wickets at an average of 16.35 for the season.

Elizabeth has also stepped onto the Super Smash stage, featuring in two matches so far. While her opportunities with the ball have been limited, she has already made her mark with the key dismissal of Laura Harris. A capable batter as well, she is continuing to develop this side of her game as she becomes more established at domestic level.

Her rise has been built on consistent performances through the age-group pathway, along with strong contributions for the Central Districts A team and the Wairarapa women over several seasons. As she continues to gain experience in first-class cricket, Elizabeth is focused on cementing her place in the Hinds squad while pushing toward higher honours.

Thereafter, she is looking at a European return in 2027 following a brief stint alongside Hinds' team-mate, Cate Pedersen with Rush (164 runs at 16.40 and 17 wickets at 15.82) in Leinster last summer.

Career highlights:

Shrimpton Trophy winner 2024/25 (Wairarapa Women)
