Luke McCarthy is a spin bowling all-rounder currently playing for Weybridge Cricket Club 2XI, where he bowls first change and bats at number eight. He is currently the leading wicket taker at the club and is looking to notch 50 wickets for the season this year.

Having played cricket since the age of four, his ambition has always been to experience overseas cricket and contribute to a club both on and off the field.

Luke was due to play in Melbourne for the 2024/25 season; however, an injury unfortunately prevented the opportunity. He is now seeking an overseas opportunity with a competitive club that values success, player development, and a strong club culture.

Away from playing, Luke is passionate about coaching and enjoys working with players of all ages and abilities. He is committed to making a positive contribution through coaching, supporting junior development, and being an active member of the club's social environment.

He offers commitment and enthusiasm, alongside a willingness to contribute through playing, coaching, junior development, and club life, with the aim of helping the club achieve success throughout the season.
