Majid Ali is a towering left arm fast bowler currently playing first class cricket in Pakistan.

Standing at 6 feet 5 inches tall, he poses a unique challenge to batters and has enjoyed a successful professional career to date. At the time of writing, he has taken 62 wickets at an average of 23.37, from just 16 first class appearances, with x5 five wicket hauls to boot.

He currently plays his cricket for Dera Murad Jamali Region alongside Pakistan internationals, Abid Ali and Danish Aziz and has taken several notable scalps in his career to date. Majid comes recommended by trusted sources as someone who would be a revelation in the UK, his skill set and ability with the ball in hand would make him quite the handful in UK conditions. He bowls with real pace and has the ability to move the ball laterally and with his left arm angle it is easy to see why he has all the tools to be an excellent UK professional.

Majid could be one of the finds of the summer and is certainly one to keep an eye on. He now seeks his debut season abroad and would be an excellent option for any club seeking a genuine strike bowler, with a bit of X factor to add to their ranks.
