Malka Madushanka is a talented left-arm orthodox spinner playing for the star-studded Colts Cricket Club in the top tier of domestic cricket.

He broke into first-class cricket during the 2017/18 season, where he impressed for Sri Lanka Army taking 22 wickets at 17.31 including his maiden five-wicket haul (5-41).

Like many youngsters, he suffered a lean second season, taking only 3 wickets in 2018/19, but he made amends during the 2019/20 summer with a further 13 wickets.

Regular bowling opportunities for the Army, then Burgher Recreation Club in recent years has prompted a move to Colts this summer where he hopes to see plenty of action at the bowling crease.

Thereafter, he is keen to experience cricket abroad and has targeted a UK league season for his development in 2024.

He is a player that comes highly recommended by none other than former Sri Lankan legend Ajantha Mendis who suggests he'll excel in club conditions next summer.
